

Living Wage & Living Income on where the crossovers lie

What are we going to do?

Identifying the crossovers!

- Meet-up Living Wage Lab & Living Income COP
- Throwing dices!
- How did it go? Plenary feedback
- Linking

Brings together stakeholders based in the Netherlands to develop and experiment with innovative ways to realize decent wages.

Who are we? And how do we differ?

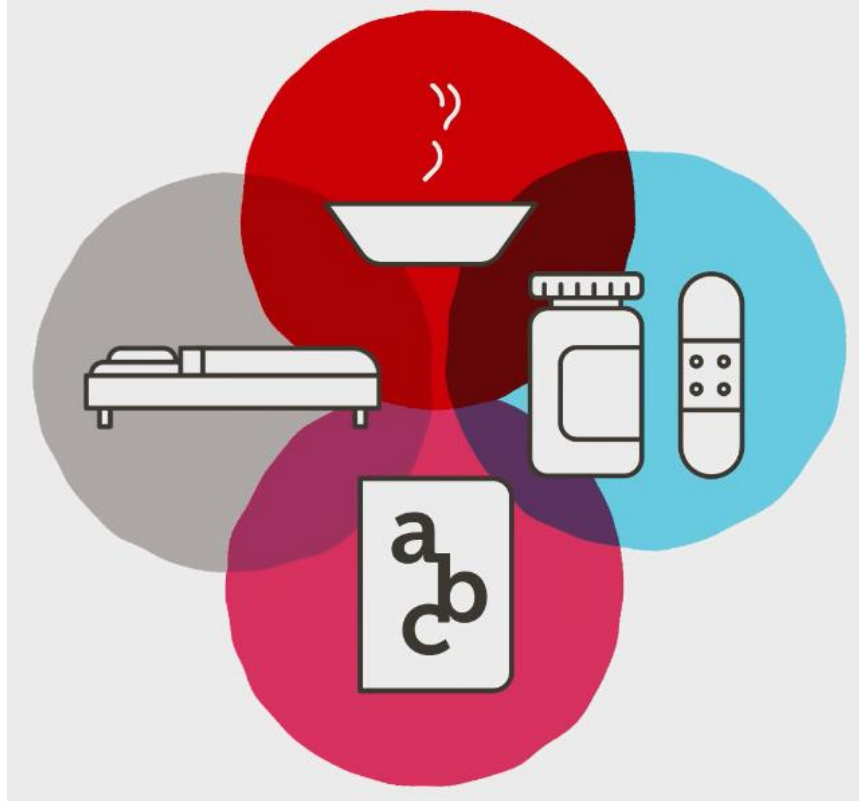

- ➡ Focus on living wage
- ➡ Mostly Dutch stakeholders
- ➡ Regular physical meet-ups
- ➡ Focus not so much on living wage calculations but more on how to get there.

The Living Income
Community of Practice

Living Wage Lab

What do we have in common?

- ➡ Both are communities of practice
- ➡ Topic of concern builds on the right to a decent standard of living
- ➡ Focus on agri-food sector
- ➡ Overlap some participants

What else do we have in common?

And how can we work together?

Let's throw dices!

Living Wage Lab

The Living Income
Community of Practice

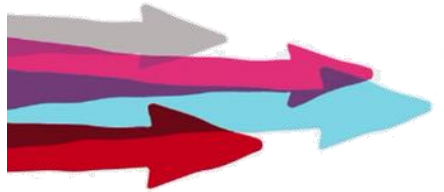

Throwing dices!

1. 8 groups of max. 10 people
2. In your group throw and discuss the question for appr. 10 minutes (~3 throws in total).
3. Throw again if you throw the same question
4. Write your thoughts on the flip chart
5. Appoint one person to present main outcomes in 3 minutes in plenary

Linking

➡ Angles for collaboration

Living Wage Lab

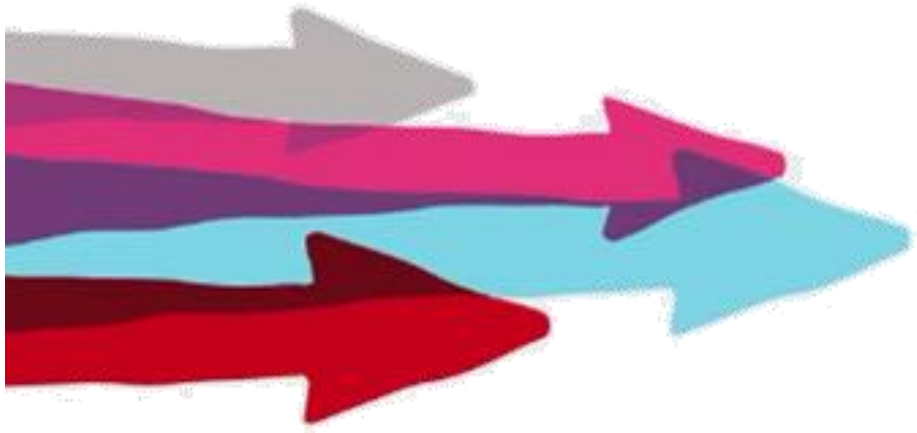

The Living Income
Community of Practice

International Conference on living wage & living income

- ➡ 2 days September / November 2019, Netherlands
- ➡ Objectives:
 - Create broader awareness on living wage and living income
 - Instigate further action & implementation to realise living wages and living income in international agrifood supply chains
- ➡ Target group: business, governments producing and consuming countries, standard organisations, civil society, employee and farmer representation, financial institutes, research.
- ➡ Set up: plenary & break-out sessions

Thank you!

Living Wage Lab

www.livingwagelab.org

info@livingwagelab.org

Fairfood:

Marthe van Andel at marthe@fairfood.nl

Hivos:

Isabelle de Lijser at idelijser@hivos.org